The list comprises relevant nutritional components only.

Values are calculated based on the average of product specifications. In those cases where only a minimum or a maximum value is specified, these values were taken respectively.

The EU column lists the nutritional values in accordance with Regulation (EU) n° 1169/2011 on food information to consumers.

The US column lists the nutritional values in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations (CFR 21).

The Japan column lists the nutritional values in accordance with the Japanese Legislation.

The energy values may differ per region because of different calculations.

For US the fat content is defined as the "sum of all lipid fatty acids expressed as triglycerides".

*) N/A = not applicable, ash contains phosphorus which is counted already upon total fat (phospholipids)
